

	Initial Crisis (Intact Family/Rent Spike)	Family Separation (Mom/Younger Kids in Shelter, Dad in Car, Teen Doubled-Up)	Shifting Need (Unaccompanied, Age 17, Pregnant)
System Entry Points	Which door do they knock on? (e.g. Coordinated Entry, School Liaison)	Which adult/youth intake pathways are triggered now?	Which sector gets the call? (Youth System, Family System, Child Welfare, etc.)

	Initial Crisis (Intact Family/Rent Spike)	Family Separation (Mom/Younger Kids in Shelter, Dad in Car, Teen Doubled-Up)	Shifting Need (Unaccompanied, Age 17, Pregnant)
Friction Points and Silos	Where do program rules or limits fail them?	What age, gender or household rules force further separation?	Where do our family and youth sectors act as separate islands instead of connected networks?

	Initial Crisis (Intact Family/Rent Spike)	Family Separation (Mom/Younger Kids in Shelter, Dad in Car, Teen Doubled-Up)	Shifting Need (Unaccompanied, Age 17, Pregnant)
Cross-System Connections	Which adjacent systems are involved?	How do adult, family and youth providers communicate (or fail to)?	How are maternal/prenatal and youth housing supports coordinated (or not)?